

building retention into your recruiting process

One constant in business is that people change.

Moreover, when good people leave, the financial impact to your organization is immeasurable. e-VentExe's Recruitment and Retention Services will help reduce the significant cost to your organization with innovative and strategic solutions for your unique hiring requirements.

Our knowledgeable and strategic recruiting professionals are here to help you locate that "total person" who is so important to your organization's success.

Looking to fill a larger quantity of entry level and front line employees? Our expertise does not end with individual placements. We utilize the same goal-oriented focus of in-depth research and thorough assessment and screening processes to fill your ongoing needs. The process is customized only to your individual needs. Nothing more.

Post hire, we're here to help you train new hires, improve your on-boarding experience for new hires, conduct new hire surveys to identify areas of improvement and track source effectiveness, conduct employee opinion surveys and exit interviews and develop employee performance programs.
